SMART PEOPLE

Finally it is right people that matter

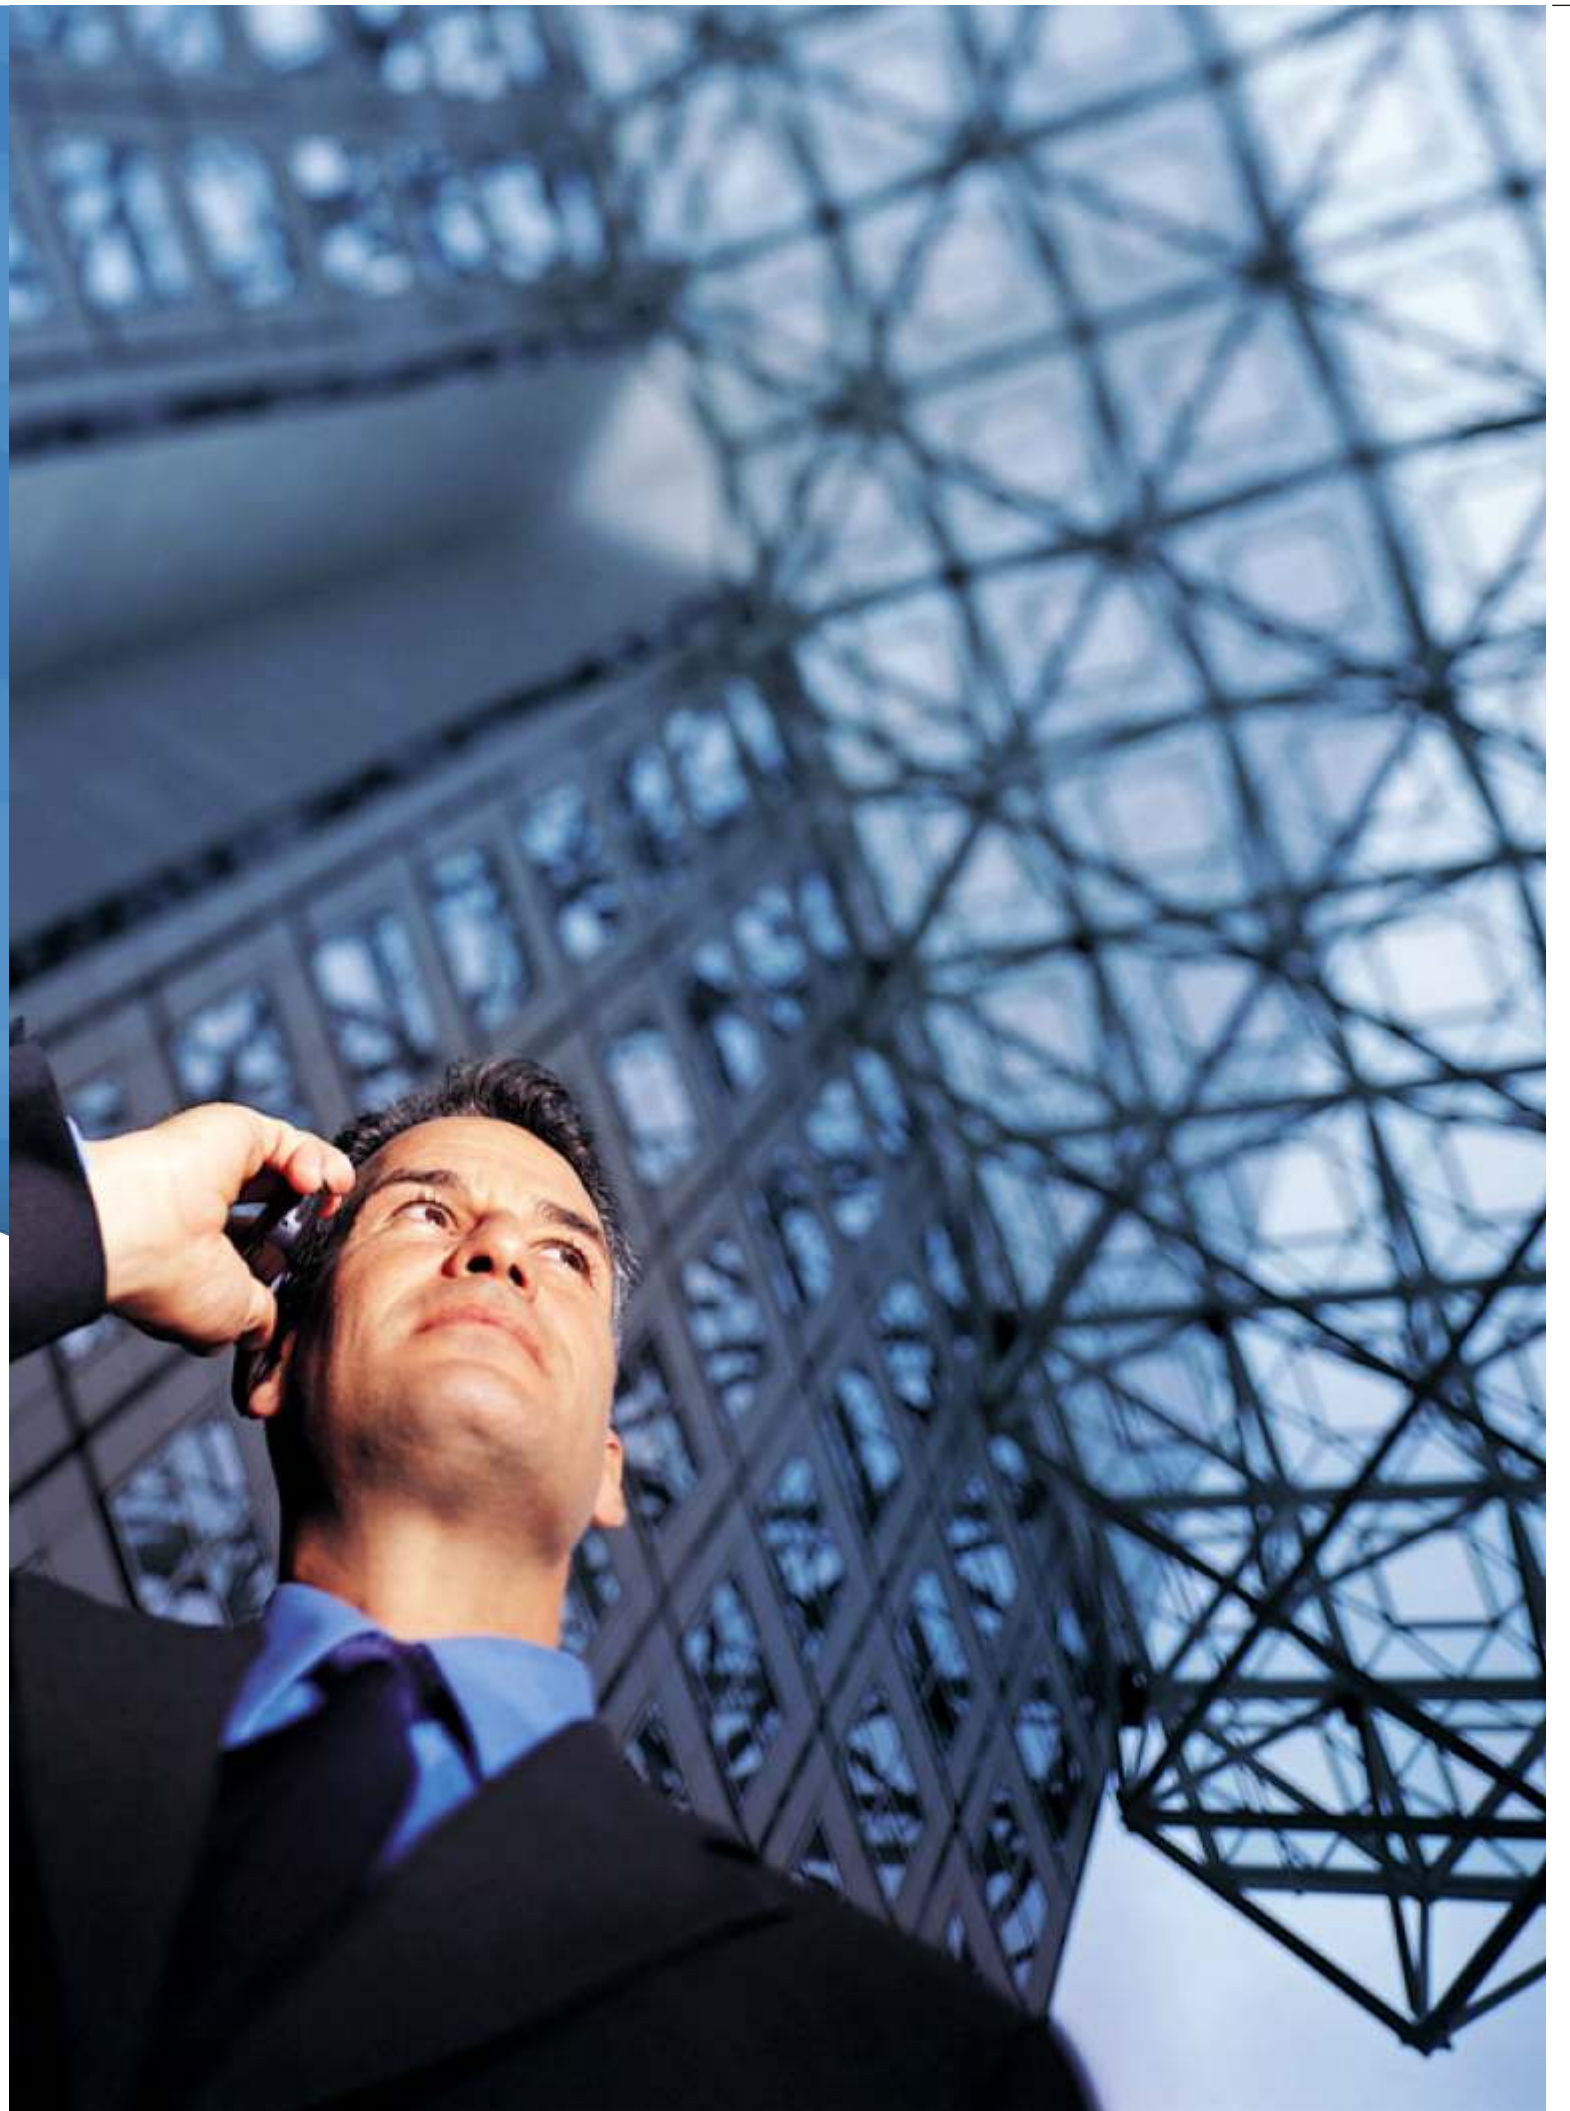

" It is people who drive technologies, provide expertise, create and innovate and craft solutions. Our people are the human interface in this mechanical world and are smart "

Organizations are built through vision, beliefs and value maximization. In other words, these tenets are tightly wound to human thought prowess and it is people who harness this nature's mighty gift. We believe and vouch the fact that it is people who make, run and grow organizations.

Savitr cherishes the role of playing a stellar nursery where talent is spotted, nurtured, honed and sharpened and this invariably makes our people our stars and they radiate our values and vision.

Values and ethics transcend time and define the character of an individual, community or an organization.

In the realms of organizational behavior, Savitr believes in adherence to fair business practices, respecting individuality, encouraging talent and innovation and improving communities and these form Savitr's core values and ethical fabric.

BALANCED APPROACH

Reliable and winning business solutions

" Short cuts take toll on the long run. Our cautious approach ensures certainty and success on both short and long runs.

Offshore software development is all about strong & effective processes. Savitr over the years has developed robust processes to cater to all the requirements of offshore software development technology Savitr operates in multiple arenas in the software domain spanning from custom or bespoke application development to integrated visual design and QA services. All these disparate services need a separate approach and methodology given that they serve different needs.

Savitr has consciously developed and adopted separate approaches for each of these disparate activities. Our methodology to each of our service offering has been honed and refined with experience and we also have taken ample care to keep it abreast with the changing technologies and business needs. This reliance and investment in processes is our strength and a key differentiator.

PROVEN EXPERTISE

Success is logical and structured

" Expertise is about doing things differently, innovatively, efficiently and effectively. Professionalism guarantees success but expertise crafts success in a logical and structured manner. We have the expertise! "
